Dear Ms. Renata B. Hesse,

I've read the proposed settlement on your web site and I find it to be insulting given the fact that Microsoft continually is allowed to get away with not only poor products that are security risks for all its users but also for bullying its competitors and forcing its user base to waste valuable time just trying to problem solve its products.

Our government should not let up on Microsoft and settle for an inadequate settlement but it should make sure that Microsoft is punished more severely than what is now being proposed.

sincerely,
